

TURN IT UP!!!

We thrive on FUN and PHYSICAL CONNECTION! Here are some handy tips for exploring CONSENT and turning up the volume!

- See someone interesting? Approach them so they can see you, make eye contact, and introduce yourself.
- Congratulations on your new friend! You may want to dance, hug or make a physical connection in some way. Before each new type of interaction, ASK!
- A great way to check in with your new friend is to ask "Is it OK if I (fill in the blank)"
- Things are heating up with you and your new friend. Remember CONSENT can be revoked at any time.
- SOBRIETY is required for consent! If you or your friend are intoxicated, consent cannot be given
- You are wanting to do something nice for your new friend, like buy them a drink or give them a gift. They do not owe you anything in return!
- Maybe your friend has agreed to cuddle or spend the night, they have NOT consented to anything else.
- You and your friend are taking your connection to the MAXIMUM VOLUME! Agreeing to one activity does not mean they have agreed to all activities. Have FUN!
