

LOOK OUT FOR EACH OTHER

We're all friends here! Friends watch out for each other.
Here is some advice on being a next level friend!

- If you see someone who looks uncomfortable SAY SOMETHING:
“Are you OK with this?” “Do you feel SAFE?”
- If someone seems like they are unable to give consent, or are intoxicated, help them get to a SAFE SPACE.
- Feel like you need some backup?
Ask a friend, a bartender, or security for support in the situation.

We all love FUN and PHYSICAL CONNECTION!
Here are some handy tips for exploring CONSENT

- ALWAYS ASK before starting a new interaction like a Dance, Hug, or Kiss!
- Remember CONSENT can be REVOKED at ANY TIME!
- If someone has agreed to cuddle or share your space it does not mean they have agreed to anything else!

An INTOXICATED person CANNOT give CONSENT!

NO is a ONE WORD SENTENCE!

YES! is SOBER - ENTHUSIASTIC - ENGAGED!
